Don't Bolieve All You Hear. .

Cittsburg Dispatch

"I congratulate you on the fine reception which I heard you were henored with out in Indiana," someone recently remarked to Senator Fairbanks, who has just returned from the republican convention in Indianapolis.

That reminds me," said the senator, "of an old butt always true story. In a sleeping car a man was snoring most loudily and nobody else in the car could sleep. Finally it was decided to awaken him and compel him to quit snoring or stay awake. So after much difficults, he was aroused.

"What's the trouble? he asked.

"Your snoring keeps everybody in the car awake, and it has got to step.

"How do you know I snored? questioned the disturber of the peace.

"We heard you," was the reply.

"We heard you," was the reply.

"Well, said the man who snored, as he turned over to go to sleep again, don't besidere all you hear."

Minority Report of the Senate Committee on Canal Favors the Panama Route.

Washington, May 31.—The view of the minority members of the intercegable canal committee on the canal bill was presented to the senate today by Mr. Kittredge. The report advocated a substitute for the house bill, leaving the selection of router for an isthmian canal to the president. It is devoted largely to the purpose of anowing that the Panama route is equal to the Nicaragua route. The claim is made that all natural advantages are with the Panama.
